

New on DVD:

Boychoir

The film Boychoir follows the story of Stet, an angry young boy who is forced to attend a Boy Choir school after the death of his mother leaves him an orphan. He is challenged by the school's choir master who recognizes the boy's talent. The film stars Dustin Hoffman and newcomer Garrett Wareing. This film premiered at last year's Toronto International Film Festival.

Place a hold on the DVD today!